Edge Publishing, 1994

The first & only guidebook to focus on Boston's exhilarating, burgeoning night scene. A comprehensive & biting look at Boston after dark. Tucking her tongue firmly in her cheek, Pike writes with wit & whimsy about the city's plethora of restaurants, bistros, cafes, clubs, lounges, taverns, pubs & sports bars. Special sections highlight blues, jazz & comedy clubs; gay bars; entertainment centers; pool halls; bowling alleys; after midnight activities, & late-night services. No stone is left unturned. Acting as an "advance scout," Pike crams each page with enough insider information & juicy tidbits to appeal to even the most committed carousers, while providing a good read for devoted couch potatoes. Sectioned alphabetically by geographic location with a bit of history & background on each area. Listings, alphabetically by ethnicity in the restaurant category, include dress code, style & quality of food & service, cover charges, clientele, decor, ambience, where to park, music & entertainment & more to help readers determine if a place suits their tastes, budgets & lifestyles. A must resource for getting the most out of a trip to Boston. To order: Edge Publishing, P.O. Box 1190, Randolph, MA 02368 or call 617-986-0538.
